2. Personal data we collect from you and why

Sonova AG processes your personal data for the following purposes:

Based on your consent (those processing are not mandatory and will occur only if you agree and consent to it):

- Analytics (not applicable for China) / Monitor the performance of the HD, ensure correct operation and security of the mobile app (post-market surveillance), and understand your demographics and preferences in using the app: Mobile app usage data (e.g. adjustments, program name personalization, onboarding time, acceptance of privacy notice, etc.), Medical device type and settings (app version, HD product ID), Other product UID (Google Analytics tracking ID), Other product type and settings (e.g. OS name/version, mobile device model, mobile device language), Performance data (e.g. connection with HD, technical log of app events), Network address & identifiers (IP address), Time stamp, Other product UID (app instance ID – unique to specific app installation on a device), Session ID (connection ID – random ID regenerated for every Bluetooth connection).

Based on the performance of your contract (those processing are mandatory as they are necessary to improve your hearing experience and to ensure the proper functioning of your HD and the Mobile App):

- Pair & Connect HDs, HD Status and Adjustments / Ensuring your HD and Mobile App are functioning as intended and allow you to make adjustments to your HD: Medical device type and settings (HD model number, type), Medical device UID (HD serial number), HD usage data (classification of ambient sound, battery state of charge, HD wearing time), Other data (HD volume, HD program).

3. How we share your personal data

Your personal data will be processed according to the instructions we provide to our employees who have received the necessary training in data protection and are subject to an obligation of confidentiality.

Your personal data may also be disclosed to:

- Other companies in our group of companies, such as our subsidiaries, all of which are required to protect personal data in accordance with applicable privacy and data protection laws;
- Our business partners, contractors, and third-party service providers. These third parties only process personal data that are strictly necessary for the services they provide to us, according to our instructions and in compliance with our privacy and security requirements.
- Other organizations and public bodies, supervisory and control authorities, including law enforcement agencies, as may be required by law.

By using the Mobile App, only personal data that are strictly necessary for the following purposes are shared:

Google Firebase - Analytics: analytics. (not applicable for China)

- Purpose of disclosure: Monitor the performance of the HD and ensure correct operation and security of the mobile app (post-market surveillance) and understand your demographics and preferences in using the app
- Categories of personal data shared: Mobile app usage data (e.g. adjustments, program name personalization, onboarding time, acceptance of privacy notice, etc.), Medical device type and settings (app version, HD product ID), Other product UID (Google Analytics tracking ID), Other product type and settings (e.g. OS name/version, mobile device model, mobile device language), Performance data (e.g. connection with HD, technical log of app events), Network address & identifiers (IP address), Time stamp, Other product UID (app instance ID – unique to specific app installation on a device), Session ID (connection ID – random ID regenerated for every Bluetooth connection)

Before we disclose any personal data to other third parties than those listed above, we will explicitly ask you for your consent. However, if we are obliged to disclose personal data without your consent, we will only disclose personal data that are strictly necessary for that purpose to fulfill our legal obligations.

4. International personal data transfers

Please note that some of the above-mentioned third parties can be located outside your country. Therefore, your personal data may be transferred to countries that do not provide the same level of protection of personal data as your own country. In such cases, we undertake to:

- implement adequate procedures to comply with applicable law;
- adopt appropriate organizational, technical, and legal safeguards in order to ensure an adequate level of protection of the personal data transferred;
- implement, if necessary, and according to applicable law, standard contractual clauses as adopted by the European Commission and/or the relevant supervisory authority;
- depending on the country of the importing third party, take additional measures such as a transfer impact assessment.

5. How long we keep your personal data

Sonova AG will retain your personal data for a minimal period proportional to the time required to fulfill the purposes outlined in Section 2. This is the case for personal data processed based on the performance of the contract. In the event applicable law or other regulations require a longer retention period, we will apply the longer retention period in order to fulfill our legal obligations.

For personal data processed via Google Firebase – Analytics: it is not possible to identify you with data collected for this processing, for any further questions please refer to their retention policy.

6. Your legal rights

Within the framework of the collection and processing of your personal data, and as per applicable law, you may have the right to request access, rectification, erasure of your personal data, or restriction of processing. In addition, you may object to the processing, request data portability and withdraw your consent at any time. According to your country, you may have other rights such as providing instructions for how your personal data should be processed posthumously. Under HIPAA you may also have the right to request an accounting of disclosures of your personal data, and the right to receive a paper copy of the notice of privacy practices upon written request.

You may exercise your rights by using the contact details in the “How to contact us” Section below,

Please note that the exercise of such rights is subject to the limitations provided by applicable law.

If you consider that the processing of your personal data infringes applicable law then you may also lodge a complaint with the local supervisory authority or the competent regulator.
